

Memphis – The Preacher

Once upon a time
There was a devil in disguise
Hunting every single
In the morning he could hunt

Disrespectful
as he didn't get his time Confrontation was the sword that cut his hand

Please have manners
Say your name before you talk

Lord my name is David
I have a cross between my lies

Son don't say that please let's talk about that

All those pampers
Were the sins I only had

David Rockson was a man
He found a preacher who's in disguise

David Rockson was the man
Who cut the fingers of that preacher man

Once upon a time
A preacher
Once upon a time
A preacher
Once upon a time
A preacher
Once upon a time

A preacher

Beware the preacher

I don't know who's the gleacher

I heard that he is a nice drunk

But he never picks the right wine

Beware the preacher

I don't know who's the richest

He stole the Mona Lisa

He stole the Mona Lisa

TXIRARITXAPTXA TXIRARITXAPTXA

T XIRARITXAPTXA TXIRARITXAPTXA

TXIRARITXAPTXA TXIRARITXAPTXA

David Rockson was a man

He found a preacher who's in disguise

David Rockson was the man

Who cut the fingers of that preacher man

Once upon a time

A preacher

Once upon a time

A preacher

Once upon a time

A preacher

Once upon a time

A preacher