

ALFONSO ALDEANUEVA HERNÁNDEZ

Alfonso is a substitute violinist in Orquesta Sinfónica de Madrid- Teatro Real and Orquesta Nacional de España. I had a temporal contract in RTVE Spanish Symphony from november 2021 till October 2022. Furthermore, he played with Düsseldorfer Symphoniker as Aushilfe, Bilbao Symphony Orchestra and Les Arts Valencia Opera in several concerts in 2022. He was academist of Orchestre de Paris in the Academie d'été 2022 with Klaus Mäkelä playing in Philharmonie de Paris. He played regularly in OBC Barcelona Symphony Orchestra between 2016-2019. He has played under the bats of Adam Fisher, Kent Nagano, Juanjo Mena, David Afkham, Thomas Adès, Fabio Luisi, Vassili Petrenko, James Gaffigan, Erik Nielsen, Dan Ettinger and Simone Young among others. During 2015-2016, he has temporal contract in Orquesta Ciudad de Granada.

He studied his bachelor's degree in ESMUC (Barcelona) with prof. Yuri Volguin and Casals Quartet. After that, he has moved to Vienna to study with Igor Petrushevski a postgraduate program. He has attended masterclasses with Ivry Gitlis, Rainer Küchl, Ilya Gringolts, Stephan Picard, Rainer Schmidt, Carolin Widmann, Pavel Vernikov and Eszter Haffner. After that, He moved to Madrid to completed a Master Performance's degree with Prof. Zohrab Tadevosyan and also a musicology master in Universidad Complutense de Madrid researching the Spanish violin repertoire.

He received 'Borsa di Studio' Livorno Festival 2015- with prof. Ivry Gitlis, 2nd prize Barcelona String Competition in 2014 and 1st prize Córdoba's National Violin Competition in 2015. In chamber music duo, Alfonso has been performing with Miguel Pisonero since 2010, winning several competitions including 1st prize Hazen Award in Chamber Music. He participated in Grumiaux Violin Competition, Geminiani Competition and Dvarionas Violin International Competition being Semifinalist in the last one.